

Dear Riders, Volunteers and Donors,

Due to an unforeseen logistical conflict, we are required to reschedule Pelotonia 10 one week later than originally planned. The dates for Pelotonia 10 are now August 20th to 22nd.

While we regret any inconvenience this may cause, the later date will enable us to better maintain high standards for Pelotonia riders. In addition, we may also benefit from optimal proximity to the end of the summer vacation season and start of the academic school year. A few degrees cooler on the thermometer doesn't hurt either. Hopefully, these positive influences boost ridership. For any questions please contact us at questions@pelotonia.org.

I apologize for this inconvenience. I hope to see you on Friday, August 20, 2010 for the start of an incredible experience.

Thank you for understanding,

Tom Lennox
